

Constitution
of the Burlington County Retirees' Education Association

CONSTITUTION ARTICLE ONE (1) - NAME

1. The name of the Association shall be the Burlington County Retirees' Education Association, Incorporated, hereafter referred to as the Association.
2. The Association shall be incorporated as a nonprofit corporation under Title 15A, Sections 2 - 8 of the New Jersey Domestic Nonprofit Corporation Act.
3. The Association shall maintain tax-exempt status under Internal Revenue Code 501c (4) and govern itself in a manner that will not jeopardize its tax-exempt status.
4. The Association shall be an affiliate of the New Jersey Retirees' Education Association (NJREA), the New Jersey Education Association (NJEA), the National Education Association-Retired (NEA-R), and the National Education Association (NEA). The Association shall abide by the New Jersey Retirees' Education Association's standards for affiliation and shall forward a copy of its constitution to the New Jersey Education Association. Affiliation shall not legally carry any liability for damages on the Association or the New Jersey Education Association due to actions taken independently by either.

CONSTITUTION ARTICLE TWO (2) - PURPOSE

The purpose of the Association shall be:

1. To serve as a local unit of and to cooperate with the New Jersey Retirees' Education Association (NJREA), the New Jersey Education Association (NJEA), the National Education Association-Retired (NEA-R), and the National Education Association (NEA).

2. To help advance the interests and welfare of retired employees of New Jersey's public schools.
3. To help retired education employees maintain identity with public education issues and to further the cause of public education.

CONSTITUTION ARTICLE THREE (3) - MEMBERSHIP

1. Persons in the following employee categories may become members of the Association by paying annual or lifetime dues.
 - a. Any retired educator who holds a certificate issued by the New Jersey Department of Education and who is enrolled in the Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund (TPAF).
 - b. Any retired educational support staff member who is enrolled in the Public Employees Retirement System (PERS).
 - c. Any person who retired from a public or state school, college, university, or other institution or agency operating under the education statutes and/or laws of the State of New Jersey.
2. Association members must maintain membership, where eligible, in the New Jersey Retirees' Education Association (NJREA), the New Jersey Education Association (NJEA), the National Education Association-Retired (NEA-R), and the National Education Association. However, persons who meet the criteria below are not required to maintain membership in NJREA/NJEA/NEA-R/NEA as long as they maintain continuous membership in the Association.
 - a. Persons who were lifetime members of the Association prior to September 1, 2011 and who were not members of the New Jersey Retirees' Education Association (NJREA), the New Jersey Education Association (NJEA), the National Education Association-Retired (NEA-R), and the National Education Association for 2010-2011.

- b. Persons who were active annual members of the Association on September 1, 2011 and were living out-of-state.
 - c. Persons who were active annual members of the Association on September 1, 2011 and were born in or before 1936.
3. Every member shall have equal rights and privileges within the Association to nominate candidates for office, vote in elections or on referenda of the Association, attend General Membership Meetings, and participate in the deliberations and voting upon the business of such meetings.
 4. Every member shall have the right to meet and assemble fully with other members to express any views, arguments, or opinions about any business properly brought before the Association and to express views about candidates in an election of the Association.

CONSTITUTION ARTICLE FOUR (4) - OFFICERS

1. The Officers of the Association shall be President, Vice-President, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, and Treasurer.
2. The President and Vice-President shall be elected for a two-year term or until their successors shall be elected.
3. The Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, and Treasurer shall be elected for a two-year term or until their successors shall be elected.
4. Officers' terms shall begin at the start of the fiscal year (September 1st) of the year in which they are elected and end on August 31st of the second year of their term.
5. If a vacancy occurs in the office of President before his/her term is completed, the Vice President shall become President immediately. If a vacancy occurs in any other office, the Executive Committee shall appoint a successor until the next regular election can be held.
6. Prior to the end of their term, Officers shall make available to their successors all materials necessary for an orderly transfer of duties.
7. Nominations for and the election of Officers shall be held under the direction of the Nominations and Elections committee during the spring General Membership Meeting.

All members in attendance may nominate and vote for Officers.

CONSTITUTION ARTICLE FIVE (5) - EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

1. The Executive Committee shall consist of the Officers, Chairpersons of Standing Committees, the Parliamentarian and the immediate Past President.
2. The Association shall establish an Executive Committee in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order: "The number of appointed voting members of the Executive Committee shall be one fewer than the number of elected positions on the Executive Committee. Additional members may be appointed without voting rights."
3. All motions shall be adopted by a majority vote of the entire Executive Committee Members present, not counting absentees/vacancies. Each of the 5 Elected Officers shall cast a weighted vote of (1.00) each on matters brought before the Committee. Each of the Appointed members including the immediate past President shall cast a weighted vote of (.25) each on matters brought before the Committee.
4. Any Association member may attend meetings of the Executive Committee. Attending members may not vote on matters brought before the Committee.

CONSTITUTION ARTICLE SIX (6) - BOARD OF TRUSTEES

1. The Board of Trustees shall be made up of five (5) members, and shall consist of the President, Vice-President, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, and Treasurer.
2. They shall serve as Trustees of the Association and the Association's Philanthropic Fund. The Philanthropic Fund is a separate corporation.
3. The Board of Trustees shall be responsible for any legal matters involving the Association as directed by the Executive Committee.
